

Figure 9-1. Anteroposterior (A) and lateral (B) radiographs demonstrating what appears to be a minimally displaced radial head fracture. Intraoperative photograph (C) showing substantial comminution at the time of surgery, for which arthroplasty (D and E) was eventually required.